I hereby grant Arch Linux my explicit permission to redistribute the current version of my typeface Input (as of 2021-07-07) in its default configuration. This permission extends only to Arch Linux and its mirrors, and is contingent on Input's original license being included along with any distribution of the font files and a link to <https://input.djr.com> being included in the package metadata. In granting this permission, I make no other obligations or guarantees. I sincerely hope your users enjoy the font! :-D
